The China National Air Corporation (CNAC) has a contract with the Government of Burma for eight planes, four C-46's and four C-47's, to move troops and equipment from Mandalay to Rangoon. The C-46's will return to Shanghai at the end of August 1948. The C-47's will remain in Rangoon pending clarification of CNAC's status in Burma. The planes were dispatched to Burma from Shanghai about 16 August 1948.
